CLEAN UP.

Remove the Causes That Produce Foul Odors and Preserve the Health of the City.

The Board of Health should be looking after the foul odors that arise in various parts of the city after night fall. An intolerable stench this week pervaded the neighborhood of Main and Lewis streets, another at Wapping and St. Clair and another from the alley from Steele to Shelby back of Third street. There may be others which are equally deleterious to health and it would be well, in the face of extremely hot weather and liability of an attack of all kinds of fevers, if not cholera, for a regular smelling committee to make the rounds of all the streets in the city after dark and locate the dangerous filthy sources. The citizens cannot be too careful now in keeping their premises clean and free from all noxious vapors and in their efforts to preserve their health and that of their friends and fellow citizens. They should make it a point to inform Dr. S. E. James, of the Board of Health, of every disease breeding stench that may come within their knowledge. If immediate attention is not given to this warning, the autumn will bring an unusually heavy penalty in the death rate. Burn, scrape and clean and thoroughly disinfect with lime or carbolic acid and escape the dangers that are now threatening the city.

CIRCUIT CLERK'S OFFICE

Renovated and Remodeled, New File Cases and Paint.

Col. Thos. B. Ford, Circuit Clerk, is having his office renovated and remodeled. The old file cases in the rear room are to be removed and new ones substituted and the room thoroughly cleaned and papered. The front room is also to be cleaned and papered, a new grate and hearth put in and all the wood work about the two rooms nicely painted. During the summer the Colonel proposes to re-arrange and re-file in new boxes all the old documents and papers and to so thoroughly go through his whole office and systematize and classify everything as to make himself perfectly familiar with the entire contents, and at the same time take the necessary precaution to prevent the destruction of old and important matter dating back almost to the very beginning of the State government.

The magistrates of the county should have remodeled the courthouse, added a story to it and made a handsome court-room on the second floor and used the entire lower floor for the county offices, but as they did not see fit to do this at the present time, they should now have the County Clerk's office put in a condition equally as inviting and convenient as the Circuit Clerk's office.

Base Ball.

The Frankforts and the Mutual Club, of Louisville, played a game at Lake Park Thursday afternoon before a rather small audience. The game was exciting at times, but on the whole not very interesting. The visitors presented a strong nine and played good ball, being strengthened by Zahner and Reeder, of the Lexingtons, while our boys played listlessly the first part of the game. The visitors took the lead at the start and held it up to the fourth inning, when the home team forged ahead. In their half of the fifth the visitors again went ahead, but in the seventh our boys came to bat, and Henry Lindsey made a hit, Wintersmith was given his base on balls and Ad. McFarland made a home run, driving in the other two men, and the game was won. VanDerveer was put in to pitch the last four innings, and but one scratch hit was made off him. Following is the score:

Umpire—Mr. Horace McFarland.

The Frankforts are very anxious to play another game with the Lexingtons, and want the game played on their grounds. It is not likely that Manager Huffman will accede to their wishes as it would be next to an impossibility for the home team to secure a fair deal on the Frankfort grounds. The last game played there leads to that opinion. Why not play the game on neutral grounds? Danville would be a good place and the ball park at that place is a good one. There is no reason why the two clubs cannot play a game and settle the question of superiority.—Lexington Transcript.

The above is a fair sample of the rot which has been given Lexington newspaper readers about the Frankfort Base Ball Club. As to the Lexington team not being able to secure a fair deal on the Frankfort grounds, the statement is a deliberate falsehood.

The last game played in this city was a clear gift to the visitors from the Lexington umpire, Mr. King, who refused to decide a man out at home when he was forced out, because, forsooth, Davis touched the base instead of the runner, and the game was won by this one score. We leave judgment as to this decision to any fair-minded person, be he from Lexington or from Frankfort, who knows anything of the rules of base ball.

Notwithstanding this, the home boys rashly permitted this same Mr. King to umpire the last game in Lexington, when, according to the account of the game as given in the Transcript itself, he proceeded to again make an ass of himself by ordering a runner to third from second because Wintersmith in fielding the ball, crossed the base line in front of him. When the Frankforts refused to play unless this decision was reversed, the best they could get was an accusation of playing the "baby act" and the ordering of the runner back to second when he was actually put out by ten feet. Any tyro in base ball knows that the fielder has the right of way and that the runner must avoid him.

As to the suggestion that the game be played on neutral grounds, we do not think the management of the home team will object, all things else being equal as to the two teams.

To County Superintendents.

FRANKFORT, July 10, 1893.
The only copy of the school law, as passed by the General Assembly, is yet in the hands of the Governor, but I have obtained a transcript of part of section 2, to which I call your especial attention. It is as follows:
But after June 30th, 1894, no school shall be deemed a common school, or be entitled to any contribution out of the school fund, unless the same has been, pursuant hereto, actually kept, or is under contract to be kept, by a qualified teacher for not less than five months during the same year, free of expense to every pupil child, as prescribed above. In order that each child of the Commonwealth may enjoy the benefits of a five months' school, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall, for each school year after June 30th, 1894, apportion the fund due each county having one or more districts of less than 45 pupil children as follows: He shall apportion to each district, without regard to school population, the per capita of 45 pupil children, both from the fund derived from the State and interest on the county bond, if any, and prorate the remainder of the fund among the districts having more than 45 such children. Provided, that any fractional balance shall be omitted in computing the said per capita, and that the aggregate of fractional balances shall be credited to the respective counties and be taken into account the following year.

Finding in this language an apparent contradiction, I have submitted to the Attorney-General the question as to whether the apportionment for the smaller districts must be made for this school year on the basis of 45 pupil children. He decides that I must now make such apportionment, and directs me to advise you in accordance therewith, that you may instruct your trustees.

When the Auditor's estimate is furnished me the general per capita will be published promptly. To each county will be apportioned the amount due it on the actual number of pupil children returned. This general per capita will be slightly reduced in the case of every county having one or more of the three or four-month districts, as the fictitious number of children required to make up these districts to 45 each will add that many to the real number among whom the fund due the county is to be apportioned. This diminution of the per capita will be small in most instances and need not operate to embarrass trustees and teachers in making their contracts for the year.

Please to notify immediately all concerned that at least a five-month school must be taught in every district.

A copy of the law will be ready for the printer to-morrow morning, but the great press of work that got precedence of this before it received the Governor's approval will make it impossible for me to get the printed copies in your hands in less than two weeks. In all cases of doubt that come up for immediate solution, act under the old law. The theory that "ignorance of the law excuses no man" cannot apply when publication has not been made and no opportunity has been offered for the people to be generally informed.

Respectfully,
ED. PORTER THOMPSON.
